

Topic: Aged Care- Where has it been and where is it headed? And the role technology can play in it's future.

Bill Deveney

To understand aged care and its future directions, we need to understand its history in Australia and that of the client/ resident grouping. In the presentation the speaker will provide an overview of the past, talk about where it is heading, provide some examples, and reflect upon future planning.